

Description of the Master of Science Economics (as of 01/2010)

Doubleddegree Program between HU Berlin and ENSAE/ENSAI: Master of Science in Economics (total of 120 study points (SP))

(of which 42 SP obtained from the courses listed below, 18 SP from the master thesis at HU as well as 60 SP from the completion of the second year at ENSAE/ENSAI)

Compulsory Courses (21 SP)

Advanced Microeconomics (6) („Allokations- und Preistheorie“;
after consultation with the Humboldt administration (Prüfungsamt), this course may be replaced by Advanced Microeconomic Analysis or Informations Economics or Auctions and Market Design)

Introduction to Advanced Macroeconomic Analysis (6) or Advanced Macroeconomic Analysis I (Ph.D.-Level) (6)

Econometric Methods (9)

2 Semi-elective courses (12 SP)

Applied Microeconomics (6)
(Competition Policy)

Applied Macroeconomics (6)
(Monetary and Fiscal Policy)

Einführung in die
Finanzwissenschaft I (6)

Theorie der Finanzwissenschaft I (6)

Elective courses (9 SP)

Any combination of courses worth a total of 9 SP from the economics department of Humboldt University

60 SP

The successful completion of the second year at ENSAE/ENSAI counts for a total of 60 SP. The corresponding grade is not taken into account. Please hand in a copy of your first and second year grade reports to the HU administration (Prüfungsamt).