

Institut für Wirtschaftsgeschichte (Nikolaus Wolf)

Lehrstuhl für Sozial- und Wirtschaftsgeschichte (Alexander Nützenadel)

Berliner Forschungskolloquium Wirtschafts- und Sozialgeschichte

Sommersemester 2026, Mittwoch 18.00–19.15 Uhr

Unter den Linden 6, Raum 2095A

- 15.04.2025 RICHARD FRANKE (KÖLN)
Forced Migration and Industry Diffusion: Evidence from Germany after 1945
- 22.04.2025 ELISABETH ALLGOEWER (HAMBURG)
*Women in the early Years of the German Economics Profession:
The Female Members of the Verein für Socialpolitik, their Research and Careers*
- 29.04.2025 MARK HAY (BONN)
“Lending in the Dutch Manner”: Resilience, Adaptation, and the Migration of the Market for International Government Finance, 1780–1825
- 06.05.2025 MOHAMED SALEH (LSE)
Social Conflict and Democratization in Agrarian Autocracies
- 27.05.2025 ANDREAS WIRSCHING (LMU)
Droysen Lecture, Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities
- 03.06.2025 CHRISTOPH BERNHARDT (HU BERLIN)
Historical Climate Debts
- 10.06.2025 KATJA WEZEL (GÖTTINGEN)
Riga as a Global Port City. From Imperial Russia’s Most Successful Trading Hub to Latvia’s Capital of Trade, 1855–1939
- 17.06.2025 HILLARY VIPOND (VIENNA)
*Young Workers and Technological Unemployment in Victorian Britain:
The Mechanization of the English Bootmaking Industry*
- 01.07.2025 THOMAS P. SØRENSEN (EUI FLORENCE)
The Rise and Fall of a Cartel – the Balt-White Timber Scheme 1935–1938
- 08.07.2025 FRANK UEKÖTTER (BOCHUM)
Welche Wirtschaftsgeschichte brauchen wir?
- 15.07.2025 EMMANUEL DIDIER (CNRS, CENTRE MARC BLOCH)
TBA

If you are interested in receiving news on the Kolloquium, please use the registration link.