

Selected Topics of Emerging Markets

(VL + SE, 4 SWS, 6 SP)

This module consists of two parts. In the beginning of the semester there are weekly lectures, 4 hours per week, about emerging markets, principles of financial development, the Asian financial crisis, microfinance and further financial issues. In January of the same term there is a seminar during two days about a specific topic that will be preannounced.

Prerequisite: None

Literature: Ray, D.: "Development Economics", Verlag: Princeton University Press (1998)

Lecture Notes

Evaluation: Presentation of seminar thesis
(plus essays as special work performance)