When is the application deadline?

The application deadline for courses starting in October of any year is May 31st of the same year. Applications open on May 1st.

Make sure to submit the complete documents in due time.

Application documents and submissions that are received after the deadline are not considered for the admission process!

What are the admission requirements?

A list of requirements can be found at:

<http://www.wiwi.hu-berlin.de/studium/sb/bewerbung/masterstudiengange> (in German)

The Faculty points out that the relevant regulations will be published in the Official Journal before beginning of application. This official publication has validity only.

In short the requirements – subject to the consent of the Academic Senate and the Senate Administration of the state of Berlin to the admission statute of HU Berlin – are:

- undergraduate degree in Business Administration or Economics (or equivalent)
- 60 ECTS in economic subjects (not including methodological subjects: mathematics, statistics, econometrics)
- 24 ECTS in quantitative/methodological subjects (mathematics, statistics, econometrics).

If the methodological subject is not clearly recognizable from your certificate, we recommend you to attach an official transcript of records where you can highlight conforming courses. In case of doubts, you can attach a description of content of the certain course.

IMPORTANT: If you are in doubt whether a course or module belongs to the methodological subject area or the title of the course or module does not make it clear that it belongs to the methodological subject area, please make sure to attach the content descriptions for the relevant classes or modules so that a content review can take place.

- at least C1 level (GER) of English proficiency
- at least B1 level (GER) of German proficiency
- GRE (Graduate Record Examination) or GMAT (Graduate Management Admission Test) score. If you do not hand in a test score, you will be assessed on the basis of the amount and quality of results you have achieved in your previous studies in methodical subjects.

What is the admission policy?

At present, we have an intake of approximately 40/150. Apart from the requirements mentioned above, decisions are taken on the basis of the grade of your first degree, 51%. Furthermore, the admission commission takes into consideration your GRE (Graduate Record Examination) or GMAT (Graduate Management Admission Test) scores or – in case you do not hand in a GRE/GMAT score – their assessment of the amount and quality of your performance in methodical subjects, 49%.

Who has to hand in proof of language proficiency?

Every applicant is required to hand in proof of language proficiency by way of language certificates or other evidences (see below for possible tests you may take).

What are the required test scores?

All results mentioned below are equivalents:

Please note that international students will also have to give evidence of a B1 level (Gemeinsamer Europäischer Referenzrahmen (GER)) of German!

Can I have the test scores sent to HU directly by ETS/ GMAC?

Yes.

The institution code of Humboldt University for GRE and TOEFL is 8167.

For your GMAT test score, please use the program code D1Z-41-44 for Business Administration or the program code D1Z-41-23 for Economics.

Please note that the testing institution must also comply with the application period when sending scores. The proof must have been received by the cut-off date at the latest.

Can I hand in material after the deadline has passed?

If you have not received your report at the time of applying you must hand in a certificate from your examinations office confirming all the examinations you have taken so far (a minimum of 150 ECTS. Also, a list of the grades you have achieved as well as a predicted final grade. Additionally, you must hand in a document certifying that you are currently studying (including which course and which semester you are in).

A certified copy of your final degree report will have to be handed in latest by the deadline for reporting back of your first semester. This is usually in the middle of February for the winter semester but the exact dates will be published. If you do not hand in this copy by the end of the deadline, your admission will be cancelled.

Please note that language certificates must be attached to your application and will not be accepted after the deadline has lapsed!

Which materials do I have to hand in as application?

You will find information concerning all documents we require (including whether we need a simple or a certified copy) when filling in the online application form. The exact requirements are tailored to you individually (nationality, country that you graduated from school, country where you received your first degree from etc.). Supporting documents usually have to be handed in German. Students with a non-German degree usually have to hand in supporting material in German or English.

I am already enrolled in a master's programme in Business Administration or Economics and want to transfer to HU Berlin. What do I have to do?

If you are already enrolled in graduate studies in Business Administration or Economics and want to switch to HU Berlin, you must apply for a transfer to HU ("Bewerbung für ein höheres Fachsemester"). You cannot transfer unless you have already taken examinations at the other university. Also, you must fulfil the requirements mentioned above for regular applicants.

You must fill in an online application form within the given time (international students must apply via uni-assist). Please send the supporting documents that you will be required to hand in to the address given in the online application form.

Please do not send us any course descriptions; we will require these only if you are offered a place at HU in order to determine which subjects can be accredited to you as already taken.

The examinations office of HU Berlin will decide which semester to enrol you in according to your academic performance so far. Please also attach a list of the examinations you have registered for in the current semester so that we can judge your level of knowledge more accurately. This is very important especially for those students applying for transfer in their second semester since they will not have taken any examinations before.

Please note that by assessing you as a higher semester there is no guarantee that the courses you have taken so far will be accredited to you. This will happen only after enrolment. Please contact the examinations office and hand in your transcript of records. At that point of time, also hand in a course description, if content is not clear from your transcript.

An application for transfer is possible in summer and winter term.

The application deadlines are:

01.05. to 31.05. if applying for winter term

01.12. to 15.01. if applying for summer term

Please do not exmatriculate from your old university before receiving admission from HU Berlin. As letters of admission will be sent out fairly lately, please stay enrolled at your old university until you hear from us.
